Policies for Image Reproduction and Use

Requests

1. All requests to reproduce photographs from the Fowler Museum at UCLA must be made on the Rights and Reproductions contract. The applicant agrees to abide by all terms, conditions and provisions of this agreement.

2. Allow 4-6 weeks for delivery on all non-rush orders. Rush orders can be arranged. Reproduction charges are doubled.

Fees

1. Foreign applicants must pay all invoiced charges with funds drawn on a US bank in US dollars and with no deduction of bank fees.

2. Failure to pay invoiced charges means permission is not granted.

Materials

1. Duplicates may not be made of photographic materials supplied by the Fowler Museum at UCLA. Any duplicates become the property of theFowler Museum at UCLA.

2. The Fowler Museum at UCLA will not supply reproductions to photographic rental or sales organizations.

3. The Fowler Museum at UCLA will not supply materials if reproduction appears susceptible to unauthorized use or duplication.

4. Reproductions that vary in parameter (except size) from the original will be considered a violation of the Rights and Reproductions contract. Exceptions to this policy by prior arrangement only.

5. If image has been cropped or otherwise altered (by arrangement only), credit line must include “detail from” or “background” or other appropriately worded explanation.

6. The Fowler Museum at UCLA reserves the right to examine proofs and captions for accuracy and sensitivity prior to publication with the right to revise if necessary.

Permissions

1. Permission is granted only when the Rights and Reproductions contract is signed by the applicant and countersigned by a Fowler Museum at UCLA representative.

2. Permission is limited to the applicant and may not be reused, transferred, assigned, sold, or shared.

3. Permission is nonexclusive and granted only for the expressed purpose described in the application; the Fowler Museum at UCLA retains the right to reproduce the image and allow others to do so.

4. Permissions are granted for a single limited-run use in one publication, one edition, and one language.

Additional publications, editions, and languages will be considered upon application for reuse.

5. Images cannot be used as endorsement for commercial products or used for commercial purposes.

6. Permissions are valid for 2 years. If publication has not appeared at the end of that time, permission automatically is revoked and must be re-requested.

7. Additional permissions may be required, which may include (but are not limited to):

    a. Copyright: the applicant must obtain written permission from the copyright owner (if the Fowler Museum at UCLA does not hold copyright) before materials will be released.

    b. Privacy: Individuals depicted in reproductions have privacy rights and the Fowler Museum at UCLA reserves the right to require a written release from individuals depicted in reproductions.

    c. Privacy rights are also extended to include ceremonial objects and rites of cultural groups; the Fowler Museum at UCLA may require the written permission of that group before releasing reproductions.

    d. Original owner: In instances where the Fowler Museum at UCLA only holds a reproduction, the applicant must obtain written permission from the owner of the original.

8. Applicants may be granted permission to retain reproductions or other imagery supplied by the Fowler Museum at UCLA for personal or educational use. If granted, reproductions may not be copied, scanned, exhibited, resold, or used for any other purpose than that specified in the application. If reproductions are initially for personal use in presentations (e.g. PowerPoint), dissertations, or other unpublished scholarly work, if they are subsequently published the applicant must apply for reuse.

Reuse

1. Applicants wishing to reprint from old proofs must prove the original came from the Fowler Museum at UCLA.

2. Subsequent reprints and editions (including foreign language editions) require a new application.

3. The Fowler Museum at UCLA retains the right to refuse permission for reuse because the applicant has not maintained acceptable first-use standards as defined by any of these policies.

Credit Line

1. Credit line must read "©Photo courtesy of the Fowler Museum at UCLA" (see #5 under Materials).

2. For reproductions in video, television, or film, credit line must appear in the program credits and in any accompanying manual.

3. References to the Fowler Museum at UCLA outside of the credit line are prohibited except by arrangement.

4. Titles and creators of artworks must be included with the credits.

Disclaimers

1. The Fowler Museum at UCLA reserves the right to refuse reproduction of its holdings at its discretion.

2. The applicant agrees to hold the Fowler Museum at UCLA harmless against all claim costs, including copyright royalties, owing to applicant's reproduction.

3. The Fowler Museum at UCLA assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or any other improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of any image.

4. The applicant agrees that images obtained through the Fowler Museum at UCLA be used in a manner consistent with the mission of the Fowler Museum at UCLA as a family-oriented source of science information.

Complimentary Copies Of Publication

1. Two copies, best edition, of the work containing the reproduction must be forwarded to the Fowler Museum at UCLA at no charge for its files (shipping and handling expenses borne by applicant). In the case of exhibit panels or other murals, proof copies will be accepted.

Products

1. The Fowler Museum at UCLA may order any overrun it may desire at cost if ordered at the time of printing/production.

2. The Fowler Museum at UCLA will be notified of first screenings, openings, broadcasts, and releases of film or other electronic media reproductions.

Electronic And CD-ROM

1. Permission will only be approved for electronic publication if sufficiently secured to prevent unauthorized downloading, transferring, copying, and manipulation of content. Permission will not be authorized for reproduction on discs or other formats that do not meet criteria stated above.

2. If permission is granted to distribute electronic copies, the distributed copy shall not exceed a display or print resolution of 72 dpi or 640x480 pixels. The Fowler Museum at UCLA reserves the right to require an electronic watermark or other identifying code within the scanned file.
